Title: A Helping Hand at Home

Every Sunday, the Johnson family has a big problem. Their house is always a mess because everyone is too busy during the week. Dad says, "We must tidy up the whole house today!"

Ben, the elder brother, usually takes the dog for a walk first. After he comes back, he starts to wash up all the dirty dishes from breakfast. While he is drying the dishes, his little sister Lucy comes in. Lucy usually hates doing chores, but today she says, "I'll help you, Ben. I can sweep the kitchen floor and feed the dog."

However, Lucy often makes a mistake. She sometimes feeds the dog with chocolate cake, but dogs cannot eat chocolate! Ben always shouts, "Lucy! Don't feed Buster that!" Luckily, Buster never eats it. Lucy feels sorry and quickly gives him his dog food instead.

Meanwhile, Mum goes out to do the shopping. She buys vegetables, meat and bread. When she returns, she sees that Ben and Lucy tidy the living room and sweep all the floors. They also dry all the dishes and put them away.

Dad feels very proud. He says, "You two are great helpers! Now let's cook a big dinner together." So everyone cooks in the kitchen. Ben chops the onions, Lucy washes the tomatoes, and Mum makes a delicious soup. Finally, the house is clean, the dog is happy, and the family enjoys a wonderful meal.

From that day on, Lucy starts to like doing chores. She realises that helping at home is not boring—it is fun when you do it with your family!
